PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1889.

JACK THE PEEPER.

Elizabeth Women Still in Terror of His Invasion.

An "Evening World" Reporter and Artist Visit His Victims.

And Are Shadowed by Two Yery Amateur Detectives.

Interviews with Some of the People Who Have Been Frightened.

A Young Englishman Arrested Early This Morning on Suspicion.

The "Peeper" Could Have Carried Off Money and Jewels Several Times but Did Not.

Elizabethport, within the jurisdiction of the New Jersey town of Elizabeth, is not a safe place for strange young men to visit these Several local detectives are constantly on the lookout for such, hoping that some one of them may be the infamous "Jack the Peeper," who has made a laughing stock of the local police force by his daring visits to the households of many of Elizabethport's most respectable citizens.

The local detectives are sleuth hounds and Folomons in their wisdom, compared to the army of amateur detectives, who are flocking to the scene of excitement to show how quickly and easily they can catch the rascal, Two of these latter gentlemen shadowed an Evening Women reporter and an artist an EVENING Would reporter and an artist yesterday while they were gathering material for a story of Jack's dongs.

The first fellow, who kept one hand in his hip pocket, and were his soft hat pulled down low ever his eyes, was easily outwitted, just for the fun of the thing.

The reporter and the artist simply walked in through the front entrance of a house which they knew, walked out through the rear do or and left the anateur detective behind walking on the street in front of the which they knew, walked out through the rear do or and left the amateur detective behind walking on the street in front of the same house. Some time later they saw the young Vidoog still on guard at the front d.or. He may be there yet.

The second would-be detective, who wenton the trail somewint later, was stumped when the newspaper men, having finished their labors, took a cab for the railroad depot.

He evidently had not calculated on having to hire cabs in pursuit of "Jack the Peeper," and was left straiding on the sidewalk scratching his head and wondering probably why he had not thought of arresting the men he suspected when he night easily have done so.

The chances are about even that some of The chances are about even that some of e superabundance of Hawkshaw's talent will arrest some of itself some time. That any of the amateurs now at work will over catch." Jack." no one nere even suspects.

Ever since the Peeping. Tom made his first appearance last. March the best men in the Department have been searching for him and have not even a clue to him.

Even the astate Chief of Police, Harry Austin, has worked day and night on various trails, but has discovered nothing of importance.

Still "Jack the Peeper," as he has come to be called, is gradually growing bolder, and now visits two or three houses about every second or third night.

HE CALLS BETWEEN MIDNIGHT AND 2 A. M. He generally calls between midnight and 2 o'clock in the morning. No one tenembers to have seen him earlier or later than the time mentioned. me mentioned. A perfect description of him has never; been blaned. After his first job last March be did not visit another house for nearly a month. After that he was not heard of for to weeks.

Then his visits grew more numerous with alarming frequency.

About the middle of June be called, unantices, nounced at the residence of the winow Gess-backer, who lived at 127 Court street, Elizabethport. The house is a pretty frame structure, covered with vines, and has a high stoop in front. She told The Evenson World reporter yesterday just how Jack

HIS VISIT TO WIDOW GESSBACKER'S "I have moved to the street behind here, into a house of my own that I have had built, "she said, "but this is my property, WINDOW THROUGH WHICH JACK ENTERED. too. I used to sleep on the north side of this house in a small room, which was nearly all occupied with a bed in it."

fact, she declared, only for a small space near the door it was all occupied.

"The man climbed in through that window and went across the hall into the front room, where my nineteen-year-oid girl was asleep on the lounge."

But he must have had to step or crawl

"That's just what he did. I am a sound sleeper, and was never disturbed until I heard my Rosa calling: 'Manima, manima!' 'What is it?' says I. 'Oh, manima! 'there is a man in the room!' she screamed, and I hollered back: 'Hold the villain. I'll kill him!'

and went on :
"Well, I was hardly dressed for the street; didn't have my shoes or stockings and some other things on, you know, so I locked the doors after the scamp and went back to inves-to Henry Austin, the Police Chief, and as I was laboring under great excitement. I just said to him: 'Well, you must be a fine lot of policemen that cannot catch that loafer.' You see he was just beginning to grow hold then, but he is getting bolder now, and still I see the police have not caught him, so I really feel as if my remark was merited, and I won't take it back now, so there," concluded Mrs, Gessbacker.

COULD NOT DESCRIBE HIM WELL.

She could not give a very detailed descrip-tion of the strange visitor.

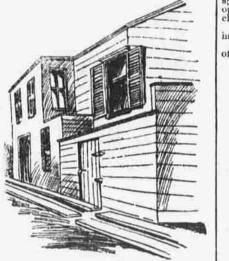

He appeared to her to be about five feet ten inches tall, well dressed, but pale, and she thinks he is insans. thinks he is insane.

Mrs. Gessbacker is an Irishwoman, quite well off and owns her own home in Elizabethport. Her husband has been dead about a year and a half.

After leaving her house The Evening Would men went away after the artist had made a sketch of the window through which the peeper bad climbed.

JACK'S VISIT TO MBS. CUNNINGHAM. They went to 128 Court street, a house which Jack visited a few nights after his call at the widow's. At 128 he clumbed up on speedy arrest of that fellow, as he frightened me so that I have been ill ever since.

'I was in bed." she continued, "with Jim Cum ingham: that's ny husband, you know, and I know it was after midnight, because I heard the clock strike 12, and I may have been asleep about an hour when I felt some one's hand about me. 'I opened my eyes and looked up to find a

"Then I howled 'Jim, Jim!' and the fellow simped softly to the door, where he turned and put his hand to his ear as if listening until my husband had actually jumped out of bed on the floor and started for min.

"My husband rushed after him and saw the door between the dining-room and kitchen was wide open, and also between the kitchen and ballway, and also that the door at the foot of the stairs was wide open, because he could see the moonlight coming up the dark entry, but his way was barred at the first doorway, because 'Jack the Peoper' hastily pulled the door shut after him and my hus-band was going so fast that he bayeed up band was going so fast that he banged up against it.
"When he opened it he found the doors

all the rest of the way shut as well, and when he finally got down to the street 'Jack,' as everybody now calls him him, had disap-asked the reporter.

"Not a good one. He seemed to be young and quick as a cat in his movements, but when he ran away from me and my husband followed him, I became frantic with terror

NARES ON THE WINDOW-FEAME.

She pointed out on the window-sill where the fellow had left the scratches of his feet In getting into the room, and The Evening World artist rapidly sketched it.

Several other ladies who have met "Jack" related that the fellow has never stolen a cent's worth in his career.

APPARENTLY AN HONEST PEEPER.

MAKING LIGHT OF THE MATTER. Chief of Police Austin when seen by The duty at nighttime.

This is probably one of the reasons why
Jack is still at large.

Among the other houses visited are:
David Lown's, on Price street.
William Troker's, on Golden street, where he slarmed Mrs. Troker.
Mrs. O'Harre, at 212 Livingstone street.

Music on Tompkins Square. Eben's Military Band will discourse musical numbers on Tompkins Square, this evening at 8 o'clock. Edward Nickerson will play a cornet where he pulled the bed-clothing off the lady, who is a widow, as she peacefully slumbered. Peter Dolan's two daughlers at 329 Fulton street, awoke one night, and found Jack standing by their couch. Their screams awakened a young man in the beauty and the last of the l SLOW LAW ATPURVIS

Their screams awakened a young man in the house who must have been troubled with heavy feet that night, for although he might have caught. The Peeper, he only pursued him at a safe distance until the spy had boarded a car. Then he came back to tell what he looked like. He has given the most accurate description so far furnished the police of "Jack."

But Sullivan, Kilrain and Others May Be Indicted To-Night.

Be Indicted To-Night.

Court for Trial.

The Prospective Defendants Getting Impatient at the Delay.

SEPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Punvis, Miss., Aug. 13. - Nothing has been done to-day in the matter of Sullivan and the others connected with the big fight.

probably be indicted this evening. Then will come a great fight whether the Circuit Court or a Justice of the Peace is to try the cases.

The prospective defendants are still in some and everybody is impatient for the end. PHIL REILLY GETS BACK

WILL TELL INSPECTOR BYRNES HOW HE LET BUSHNELL ESCAPE.

Detective Sergt, Phil Reilly arrived in this city o-day, noon, on the Pacific Mail steamship Colon, from Aspinwall. Reilly has been in Chili, South America, for a year trying to extradite Bushnell, the defaulter.

The Sergeant was seen before disembarking by an Evenino World reporter, but refused to say anything about the way Bushnell eluded him.

"I shall make an official report to Inspector Byrnes this afternoon, and before that I shall say nothing."

The Sergeant's family and several detectives met him at the pier and accompanied him home.
Inspecter Byrnes will lay the matter of Reilly's report before the Police Commissioners at their meeting to-morrow.

DANBURY'S INCENDIARY FIRES.

Thirteen in a Week-A Night-Watchman Held on Suspicion. IFFECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, !

DANBURY, Conn., Aug. 13,-The burning of Byron Dexter's large hat factory last night has terribly increased the excitement here. This is the thirteenth fire in a week.

Dexter's loss is between $40,000 and $50,000 m which there is an insurance of $15,500 on the building and $8,000 on the stock.

One hundred and seventy-five people are thrown out of employment.

William F. Carey, the factory watchman, is under arrest. He tells conflicting stories of the origin of the fire and is held on suspicion.

ALTERED MUTUEL TICKETS.

A Coney Island Gambler Swindles the Brighton Beach Pools.

Samuel Atkinson, a Coney Island gambler, vas arrested at the Brighton Beach Race Track this morning on a charge of altering the numbers on losing mutuel tickets.

The complainant was Charley Morrison, who is employed at the Brighton Beach track to cash winning mutuel tickets on a 10 cent commision, In his complaint, Morrison swears that the prisoner obtained $5,325 from him on bogus winning tickets last Friday.

FOR SQUADRON CRUISE TROPHIES.

The New York Vachts Race Away to New Bedford This Morning. INPECTAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. COTTAGE CITY, Mass., Aug. 13.-The yachts

New Bedford at 10.40 this morning against a benyy southwester. Forty-footers not belonging to the New York

Cinb were allowed to start first. Their time was taken by the Electra. The race is for the squadron cruise tr

The Quotations.

ŀ	ALL HAVE PISTOLS NOW.	Aren., Top. & Santa Fe 38 381 37
Ì	Every man in the vicinity who can afford it		4.7
1	has bought a pistol or a savage dog, and even	Cluve, Uin., White & M. Louis. 7199 7414 739	6
		there, Car, Chie & St. Louis prd. 102% 102% 102
7	lone women are taking pistol practice, in	Cheanpeake & Ohio 256 250 250	9
ï	view of a possible visit from the Peeper.	Chesapeake & Ohio 1st pfd 67% 07% 07% 07% 07% 07% 07% 07% 07% 07% 0	21
J	DELLA CALLES CALIFORNIA DE LA CALIFORNIA	Chesapenke & Ohio 2d prd 415 415 415 Chicago ina Tract 50 104 55 Chic Burl & Quiucy 1045 1045	21
è	AN ABREST THIS MORNING.	Chic. Burl. & Quincy	21
	Philip Montgomery Renfrew, aged thirty-	Cincago & Northwest 1114 1114 1106	G I
2	five, unmarried, was arrested at 2.55 this	Chichago & Northwestern pfu 142 1425 1425 Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul 725 725 725 725	~1
		Unicago, Mil. & St. Paul 7256 7256 725	•
í	morning by Officer Desmond on suspicion of	Chicago, Mil. & St. Paul 725, 725, 725, 725, Chicago, Hock Island & Pau, 1975, 1994, 1981	3.1
	being "Jack the Peeper." He was caught	Chicago & Eastern Illinois	3 1
ŀ	in the yard of Thomas Gorringe, 413 First	Co. & Hock, Valley 140a 140a 140	21
	avenge.	Colorado Coal & Iron 2694 2014 201	31
1	The officer says there was another man
		Delaware & Hudson 147 14714 1471 Den. & Riotrande 1794 1794 1795 1795 1795 1795 1795 1795 1795 1795	11
1	with the prisoner who managed to escape.	Den & Kin Grande 1726 1726 1726	8
Ì	Renfrew refused to give any reasons for	Delawise a Rudon 147 1478 1479 Delawise a Rudon 147 1478 1479 Den & Kiu Grande 1798 179 179 E. Tenn., Va. 4 Georgia 10 10 10 10	90
3	being there at that unseemly hour, and also	E. Tenn , Va. & Georgia 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 10 72 72 72
1	refused to tell the name of his companion.	Green Bay J. Winning dla 416 41	21
1	He was locked up. This morning he	Illumis (-ntral 110) 110) 110) 110)	31
И	claimed to have been drinking last night and	Lake Shora 104% 104% 104% 104%
1		Lake Erie & Western 1016 1109 110	4
ı	to have no knowledge of what occurred.	1 1 miles P. 7 Let al. 19 (10 Let 1) 1/2/2	4.4
I	Officer Desmond says the man to all ap-	Louisville & Nachville	4
Ì	pearances was perfectly sober when discov-	Mr. L. S & Western p.d	*
1	ered, and that he tried to escape like his	Missouri Pacific 734 734 734 734	6
d	comrade.	Missouri Pacific	84
1	Ebenezer Renfrew, the prisoner's brother,	Matternal Land Trust 17:45 Wills	6
ł		New York Central 1075 1074 1074 N. Y. & New England 5116 5116 511	(1)
ı	was arrested at 4 o'clock on First street by	N. Y. & New England 513s 5134 513 N. Y., Lake Eric & Western 2845 2846 275	4
ĺ	Officer Fadde this morning. He said that he	N. Y. Lake Frie & Western 2862 2864 275 N. Y. Lake Frie & Western pd. 60 60 60 60	2
ı	was looking for his brother, as their mother	N. Y. Susq. & Western 854 804 83
1	was alarmed over his prolonged absence from	Northly & Westmen 1584 1584 153	11
H	the house. Ebenezer's story appearing to	Norfork & Western pro 5294 5294 5294	4
1	be a straightforward one, and being corrobo-	Northern Parities
ı		Northern Pacific pfd	4
1	rated by his mother, who visited Police Head-	Ontario & Western 1734 18 173
1	quarters, he was discharged.	Or Railway & Navigation 1984 1984 1985	21
ij	Philip, however, persisting in refusing to	Or Transcontinental 31394 3414 333
1	give the name of the man who was with him.	Oregon Short Line 48 48 48	31
ı	and also being unable to give a satisfactory	Pacific Mail. 35% 35% 35%	9
ł	account of bimself, was held to await further	Philadelphia & Reading 45% 45% 44%
ı		Philadelphia & Reading	4
١	developments.	Rich & Aligenary 21 21 21 21 21 21 21 22 22 22 22 22 22	4
þ	He is an Englishman, and his general ap-	Right & W. Point Ter pfd 81 81 81	1
J	pearance the police claim is not unlike the	St Pan & Omana pro	3
J	description of the unknown ruffian who is	Sugar Trust 100 100% 1083	6.1
J	terrorizing the community.	Perms Pacine 2119 2119 2119 Tenn Cont & Iron 3.09 3.09 3.09	91
J	Both : h : Renfrews reside with their mother	Tenn Coal & Iron 3.75 30% 39; Union Partite 62% 62% 62%	21
J		Union Parific	2 1
	on Fulton street, and are employed in the	Union Pacific. 02% 02% 02% 02% Wabach, St. Louis & Pacific. 18 18 18 17 Wabach, St. Louis & Pacific pid. 20% 22% 22%	2
1	Singer factory. The chances are that the	Western Union Telegraph 8-24 80 8 9	w:Ti
J	case will fall through.	Wheeling # Lake Eine 71% 71% 70%	9
j	Control of the contro
1		A Marian Company of the Company of t
1	Calaborates then One Handard and Second	Wiserd Edison in Paris

Wizard Edison in Parls.

Celebrating Her One Hundred and Second fey came to the frees News association.)
Panis, Aug. 13.—Mr. Edison has taken up his

The French Government and the scientific solution of the authorities. He argued that he was a libertine, and the proof against him was conclusive. He argued that the Court should not permit him to appear, and Judge Bookstaver so decided, and ex-Judge Fullerton took an exception. There will be a fete on the grounds in his honor at night, in which the electric light in all its forms will play a conspicu-ous part.

Judge Bookstaver Sets Aside Ali Proceedings in the Flack Diverce Case.

Startling Disclosures Made by Lawyer Wright.

Sullivan, Kilrain and a few others will He Makes Things Look Mighty Bad for Judge Monell fairly good spirits, but the delay gets irk- Mrs. Flack's Affidavit of Denial Also Read in Court.

> A "World" Reporter Gave Her the First Knowledge of the Divorce.

There was a sensational scene in Judge Bookstaver's court room in Common Pleas this morning when the famous Flack divorce case came up on the order to show cause why the proceedings in the case should not be set aside and the decree of divorce given in favor of Mrs. Flack vacated.

The growd was so great that every inch of standing room was occupied, and many people who came to hear the proceedings could not get inside the door.

Most of the spectators were lawyers, who are interested in the case on account of the prominence of some of the lawyers involved. and whose professional reputation depended upon the disclosures that might be made.

Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Beaman came in together, the former carrying a big bundle of legal documents. Ex.Judge Fullerton, who wanted a chance to get a word in for the Sheriff, was already on hand.

He said he was only there to see what was going on. Lawyer Benjamin Wright had been served with the order to show cause, as he was the only attorney who had appeared in the He was present and was represented by Judge Van Vorst, as counsel. THE DIVORCE ANNULLED. The disclosures which were made in the subsequent proceedings were startling and sensational, and the result was that Judge Bookstaver immediately vacated the order of reference made, and all the proceedings under it were set aside and the judgment of divorce made by him was annulled. Mr. Cleveland started the ball rolling by making his application for the order, which was supported by Mrs. Flack's affidavit.

MRS. FLACK'S STATEMENT. In this she began by stating that she was married to Mr. Flack in 1859 and had since that time resided with him in this city as his informed by a person, who represented him-self as a reporter of the New York World, that she had been a plaintiff in a suit for absolute divorce, that proceedings had been taken before Joseph W. Meeks as referce. COTTAGE CITY, Mass., Aug. 13.—The yachts taken before Joseph W. Meeks as referee, of the New York squadron started on a race for and that on July 12 a decree of divorce had been granted to her.

That one Benjamin Wright had acted as her counsel, and that site had afterwards employed the firm of Evarts, Choate & Beaman to represent her.

NEVER HEARD OF THE EUIT. She declared that she had never heard before of any such suit, that sue had never au-thorized Wright to act as her counsel in any suit, and that she did not know him and had never seen him until she met him in the office of her counsel, Evarts, Beaman &

Choa'e, on Aug. 9.

She further alleged that Sheriff Flack had not appeared in the case and that she believes that the referee, Mesks, had been appointed at the request of Mr. Wright, EX-JUDGE PULLERTON INTERRUPTS.

When Mr. Cleveland finished reading the affidavit Judge Van Vorst rose to speak for his client, but was interrupted by ex.Judge Fullerton, who said in a very solemn man-ter that he wished to have something to say in Lehalf of the Sheriff, who was very deeply interested in the case.

Mr. Cleveland objected on the ground that he had not appeared at all in the case, and that he had no right to ask to appear in the present proceedings,

"The Sheriff," he said, "is to-day a free

"The Sheriff." he said. "is to-day a free man. He may be a hu-band to-morrow. He wants to come in and make him subject to the jurisdiction of this Court."

"But I don't see on what theory you can claim this," said the Judge. "Your client failed to appear when he had a chance."

"He is satisfied with the jurgment and he does not want to have it set aside."

"Do you put your client in the position of being satisfied with a judgment against himself," asked Mr. Cleveland.

TO CLEAR UP THE SMOKE. "Certainly, I do. He proposed to come in here and clear up the smoke which has surrounded this case for the past two weeks. It is his judgment not hers."

"How can you say that?" asked Judge

Bookstaver.

Because he gets rid of an unworthy "Because he gets rid of an unworthy woman and he doesn't want to get her back again," shouted Jurige Fullerron, shaking his finger impressively at Mr. Cleveland.

He said his authority for appearing was in the air, in the minds of every one present, and in the Constitution, but Judge Bookstaver didn't agree with him. ADMITTED HE WAS A LIBERTINE.

Mr. Beaman here took a hand in the argument and said that the Sheriff had been given all the opportunity that he wanted when the case was before the referce, that he had admitted that he was a libertine, and the proof

BASEBALL STANDING THIS MORNING. The Lengue.

American Association. | Won, Lost. | Fee | Won, Lost. | St. Louis. | 611 | 711 | 670 | Cincinnsti. | 51 | 4/2 | Breekign | 58 | 3.3 | 407 | Kan. | City | 28 | 5.4 | Limiter | 5.1 | 38 | 582 | Columbus | 35 | 45 | Athietic. | 50 | 37 | 375 | Legisville | 20 | 74 Atlantic Association.

A Year Ago To-Day. BEAGUE. For AMERICAN ASS'S

Busekall Te-Day.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Prophlyn at hansas City. Athleties at Cincinnati. Baltimore at Louisville, Columbus at St. Leuis.

Results at Saratoga.

the profession, who had been entirely inno-cent of any intentional wrong-doing in the case, and who would never have acted for Mrs. Flack and signed papers unless he thought he was perfectly authorized to do so. As Mrs. Flack repudiated him he destred to make his explanation of the matter in the form of an affidavit.

NEVER SAW MRS. FLACE. Mr. Wright says that he has practised in Mr. Wright says that he has practised in this city for twenty-five years. He admits that he never saw Mrs. Flack, for whom he acted in the divorce suit, till Aug. 9, when he met her at Mr. Beaman's

Aug. 7, when he had be not be not confice.

He was not retained by her personally, but in April or May last he was approached by Joseph Meeks, whom he had known as a friend for twenty years, who requested him to act as counsel for Mrs. Flack in the case. LOOKS BAD FOR MEEES.

Meeks further told him that both parties had consented to the divorce, so his duties would be purely formal.

Mr. Wright said that being assured of this by Meeks he consented to act, provided he received a written authorization from Mrs.

Flack.

Meeks said he would get this although he did not think it necessary.

Judge Monell, he told the deponent, had been Mrs. Flack's attorney for fifteen years, and had absolute authority to speak for her. MONELL'S LETTER OF AUTHORIZATION.

A few days afterwards he received a note from Judge Mouell, in which the latter au-thorized the deponent to act as counsel for the plaintiff.

The letter was offered in evidence and read.

Not long after this Wright submitted his summons and complaint, and the signature of Mrs. Flack was obtained.

He also made the formal affidavit of regu-This was all he knew of the case. He sup-posed Judge Monell had the authority to em-ploy him, and he had acted on that authori-

DIDN'T KNOW OF ORDER OF REPERENCE. He did not know of any order of reference. He did not know that Meeks was appointed

He had not know that steeks was appointed referee.

He had never appeared before any referee, and had no knowledge that a decree had been granted until he saw it in the newspapers.

In regard to all the proceedings taken after the commencement of the action he was perfectly ignorant, and neither his friends nor Monell had ever informed him of what was Monell had ever informed him of what was going on.
WANTED TO EXPLAIN AT ONCE.

WANTED TO EXPLAIN AT ONCE.

Mr. Wright further says that as soon as he learned of the trick which had been played upon him he tried to see Mrs. Flack and explain matters to her.

He did not succeed in meeting her till Aug. 9, when they met in the office of Mr. Benmau, where he made a full statement.

He declares that he received nothing for his services and did not expect anything, as he bad merely uppeared in the case to oblige his friend Mecks.

SILENCE IN THE COURT-ROOM.

SILENCE IN THE COURT-BOOM When Judge Van Vorst's son had finished reading the affidavit there was perfect silence in the court-room for a few seconds. Then Judge Bookstaver said in a low voice:

THE JUDGMENT ANNULLED. "This is ertainly a remarkable state of affairs which is disclosed by this statement.
"I have known Mr. Wright for years, and have slways believed him to be an upright, honorable man. I believe his statement is perfectly true, and in view of the facts, I shall vacate the order of reference, and set aside all proceedings under it. The judgment is annulled in every respect and the plaintiff is left perfectly free to take such other proceedings as she may see fit upon the advice of coursel."

MAY HAVE OTHER RELIEF, TOO. making his application for the order, which was supported by Mrs. Flack's affidavit.

Mrs. Flack's statement.

In this she began by stating that she was narried to Mr. Flack in 1859 and had since hat time resided with him in this city as his wife.

"The world" her first informant.

On Aug. I she averred that she had been informed by a person, who represented him.

FENCE RAZING STOPPED. The New York Jockey Club has squatted on the Pelliam Parkway with a portion of its racerack, and it seems in no mood to get off, at Mayor Grant learned of the tresuses and the Park Department was directed to remove the encroaching fence of the racetrack. The officials of the Park Department were met rereaching tens. The officials of the Park Department were met atth a prompt injunction.

Yesterday Judge Bartlett disolved the injunction, which was to lowed by an order to Superatendent of Parks Parson to remove the fence. They had removed but few pickets when another injunction by Judge Mills was served another injunction by Judge Mills was served another injunction by Judge Mills was served.

This injunction will be argued at White Plains

West Look Feet West Look 188 286 5776 New Haven 27 40 30 31 567 Lowell 26 42 30 32 540 Norsalk 0 2

New York	57	29	063 St. Louis	56	28
Chicago	50	07	083 Breaklyn	56	28
Detroit	47	37	660 Athletto	51	51
Phila	42	41	560 Chroinman	52	34
Rusten	41	45	47	Baltimure	18	50
Cittaburg	34	461	442 Louisville	31	54
W shin'	50	31	51	345	54
Ladam	18	31	54	345	54	54
Ladam	18	31	54	345	54
Ladam	18	31	54	345	54
Canada	18	34	34	34
Canada	18	34	34	34
Canada	18	34	34
Canada	18	34	34
Canada	18	34	34
Canada	18	34	34
Canada	18

THE LEAGUE. New York at Cleveland. Boston at l'ittsburg. L' i a celphia at Unicago. Washington at Indianapolls.

ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION. Newark at Lowell, Norwalk at Wore seter. New Haven at Hartford.

EXBIBITION. Metropolitans vs. Plushings at the New Pole

(SARATOGA, Aug. 13. -The races to-day resulted

Special preparations have even been made for his reception. There will be a fete on the grounds in his honor at night, in which the electric light in all its forms will play a conspicution part.

Ewing vs. Gore.

Score, 2 such as the sun of algebia name. Gore wins by solds base, teshas played firsts, 2 with which the declared that he regarded Mr. Wright sam honorable and worthy member of this as follows:

First Race—Three-quarters of a mile, —Mora first, Maria filly second and Daisy F, third. There I 10by.

Score, 2 such as the sun of algebia name. Gore wins by solds base, teshas played first, 2 with a statement in which he declared that he regarded Mr. Wright as an honorable and worthy member of time—1.15by.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Bold Attempt at Highway Robbers on Broadway.

Two Robbers Boldly Raid a Money-Changer's Office.

A Shot Fired at the Proprietor Grazes His Shoulder.

One of the Thieves Arrested and the Other Makes His Escape.

" Throw up your hands."

In true Western road agent style this order vas shouted to Goetz Loeb as he stood leaning on the counter in his money exchange office in the basement of 69 Broadway

They seemed to whisper something, then turned and skipped lightly down the flight of money changer. To emphasize his remarks he held a pistol in his right hand pointed full at Mr. Loeb's

The other young man ran around to the end of the counter and hastily opened a drawer where Mr. Loeb usually keeps about

It was empty to-day, Mr. Loeb changing its location only this morning.

counter and rapped on the plate glass and shutter for assistance.

He was alone in the place at the time.

His cries alarmed the men.

The shorter of the two mades rush to reach $1,200 in bills which were exposed on a shelf behind the counter, just as his companion fired a shot at Mr. Loob.

This frightened him, and he turned and separated at Church street.

One can through Church street, the other cully.'

"He had no more to say, and I slipped the nippers on him," concluded the young policeman. Treauor has a black mustache, but his com-

BLANCHE AND RERBERT MARRIED.

True Love Comes to the End of a Very SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I BANGOR, Me., Aug. 13,-The last act in the Herbert and Blanche were united in marriage here yesterday by a Methodist minister. Blanche will be remembered as the girl who Blanche will be remembered as the girl who attempted saticide by chooting a few weeks age for love of Sprague, and who last week was taken to her home in Bucksport by her parents after a desperate stringle, in which the police were called on for assistance.

Since then Sprague has been swearing vengeance on the police and her parents.

The comple attempted to be married in Bucksport vesteriar, but no minuster could be found who would perform the services, as their increase said they were both of Bangor.

Sprague is a stovelore and his considerable property. The girl's rather good looking.

James Johnston, of 1355 Third avenue, and John J. Biggs, of 395 Third avenue, this city, who were arrested Saturday afternoon charged with committing an assault upon Mayor Glea-son, of Long Island City, were arranged in Court this morning, but Mayor Gleason did not press the charge and the men were discharged.

at 11.15 o'clock to-day.

A second defore he had seen two welldressed young men halt at the head of the flight of stairs leading down to his office, stairs. It was one of them who addressed the #1,500.

"D-- n it, there is no money here," he yelled. Mr. Loeb, in a frenzy of terror, rushed to the window of his office inside the fled without the money.

The other robber, stuffing the smoking pistol into his hip pocket, preceded him.

The shot had been heard by Officer Moody, of the Church Street station, who chased the One ran through Church street, the other continued down to Greenwich street, dashed around the corner, stopped, and turned quickly and was walking quietly back when Moody ran around the corner against him.

"What is the matter?" he asked, quietly,
"Chestnuts," said Moody, slipping the niopers on him.

The prisoner was taken to the station-house; where he gave his name as William Trainor, ared twenty-three, and said he lived at 155 East Thirty-third street.

He said he was not married.
He only had a dollar in his pocket.
An old 32-calibre revolver, with five full carticless and one empty one, was taken from

An old 32-calibre revolver, with five full cartridges and one empty one, was taken from his pocket by the policeman.

He would not talk about the case.

The shot he fired ploughed through Mr. Loeb's shirt on the left shoulder, but did not draw the blood.

Treasor was arraigned in the Tombs this afternoon and held for trial.

His companion escaped. Policeman Moody, who made the airest, said;

"When I ran full tilt againt the fellow he was red in the face, perspiring and panting. I knew it was him at once.

"When I collared him he said; 'I sin't the man.' I said; 'Oh, you ain't, eh?'

the man. I said: 'Oh, you ain't, ch?' Then I slipped one hand quickly into his hip pocket and there was the pistol, with the tube pointing up."
"I said: 'What's this? Oh, no, you ain't the man, but you are coming panion is shaven clean.

Blanche Abbott-Herbert Sprague affair has been emeted.

Mayor Glenson Was Merciful.

Obstitute Constitution Rendily Vieldate the

THE WIDOW GESSUACKER'S HOUSE, SHOWING

over you on the way," remarked 'Ine Even-ing World reporter. CRAWLED OVER THE WIDOW'S BED.

him."

I jumped out of bed," the widow continued, "and grabbed a policeman's billy which my brother in New York gave me.

As I ran to the door I caught a glimpse of the fellow at the back door.

He was standing there looking melancholy like, but when I started for him with the club in my hand he became a sprinter. Lord, how he did travel!" and the worthy widow smiled at the recollection. She became indignant again immediately though, and went on:

doors after the scamp and went back to investigate.

"The window over my bed, which I had lowered myself when retiring, was way up and the shutters were wide open. I also found the tracks of dirty shoes on my bed, showing positively that he must have crossed over it. My girl was crying, and I asked her 'How did you come to see him!'

"I was asleep, mamma, and woke up with somebody's arm around me, and a man's head beside mine, and then I turned around and saw by the light of the lamp that it was a man. I screamed and tried to jump up. He ran out the back way just as I hollered for you,' and that was all that she could tell me.

"Next morning I went to report the case to Henry Austin, the Police Chief, and as I was laboring under great excitement. I just MRS. CUNNINGHAM'S WINDOW shed with a tin roof and into the window of Mrs. Cunningham's knoben. She was eager to tell her experience and said: "Now, that The Evening World has taken the case up, I hope soon to hear of the

Could you give any description of him ?"

and hid my head underneath the ted-cloth-ing until my man came back." she answered.

APPARENTLY AN HONEST PEEPER.

Upon several occasions he has had opportunities to steal rolls of money, watches, silver and gold jewelry and diamonds of value, but he has never even handled them, Judging by appearances, he generally enters a house through a window near the ground and then the first thing he does is to open all the doors between the chamber he means to enter and the street. Several times he has jumped headlong from a window.

Chief of Police Austin when seen by The Evening World reporter yesterday admitted that the stories of Jack's doings were true, but tried to make light of them, saying that the fellow had never harmed any one. In answer to the reporter's question he said he hoped to catch the fellow soon.

The Chief has only thirty-five men to patrol Edgabeth and Elizabethport, and in the latter piace he can only spare eight men for data at righttime.

THE BEST DESCRIPTION OF HIM. He says he is a young man with a pale cast of countenance, small black mustache, thin, and well dressed in a black suit of clothes.

There have been many incidents, sad and humorous arising from Jack's escapades.

The death of one woman is indirectly as-cribed to a visit he made her about 2 o'clock on the morning of July 30.
Her name was Mary McCarthy, and she lived with her husband John at 353 Wall street. She was dying with consumption.

When the Peeper entered her room and aroused her she became so frightened that she fainted away after giving one scream. When she recovered the fellow had gone, and she died a few days later.

While she would have eventually died of consumption, it is everywhere believed that the stranger's sudden appearance hastened her end.

At another place a husband returned home

INDIRECTLY THE CAUSE OF A DEATH.

At another place a husband returned home At another place a husband returned home unexpectedly, and found a strange man's socks in his bedroom. He made a terrible time, but his his wife pacified him by blaming it on Jack the Peeper.

The police were asked to investigate, and Chief Austin learned the truth but he did not tell the woman's husband.

"She has promised'ine to lead a better life and I will not rum her life and break up her home." he said to The Evening World reporter yesterday.

porter yesterday. ONLY VISITS HANDSOME WOMEN.

ONLY VISITS HANDSOME WOMEN.

The man of mystery must reconnoitre in the day time, as he has never called on any but good looking women, and has never been known to visit the homes of colored people.

Last Wednesday night he paid no less than seven visits to houses on Fulton street. In one of them he fell over a coal scuttle and ran away before entering a bedroom.

One night a lady heard a strange noise outside her bedroom door, which was locked, and she put her eye to the keyhole.

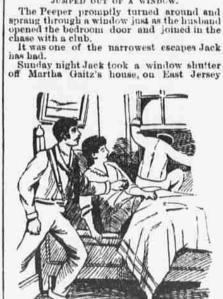

She felt rather than saw that some one was peeping in through the keyhole.

Before she had time to scream she heard some one on the outside say "Hist!" and then she bawled, arousing the household.

A boarder in the house came rushing from upstairs and intercepted Jack as he was running for the back door.

JUMPED OUT OF A WINDOW.

ning for the back door.

PEEPING JACK'S NARROWEST ESUAPE. street, and partly raised a window, when he was frightened off by some one passing. He then went to a house on Fourth, near He then went to a house on Fourth, near Pine street, where he was seen crawling on his hands and knees through the hallway.

Many of Jack's visits are not reported to the police, but they are heard by the good Father Gessner, of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Church, who is waging an incessant warfare on the police for their failure to capture the beast.

ALL HAVE PISTOLS NOW.

Birthday. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,] BUFFALO, Aug. 13.-At Clarence, in this county, to-day Mrs. Lavina Atwell Fillmore is quietly observing the one hundred and second amiver-sary of her birth. She is the widow of Rev. Glezen Fillmore, who was a first consin of ex-President Millard Fillmore. Her hus-band died in 1875. He was a moncer minister of the Methodist Ci u ech.